Glorious Spring Is Here!

Dear Friends,

Happy Spring!

I love this time of year; it's so full of possibility and growth. We're having an early season in western North Carolina and I've already begun to plant flowers. Ahhh! Nothing like the feel of soil in my hands. I love it! I hope you are enjoying this glorious

Spring and that much beauty is blooming in all areas of your life.

Here's a great quote from Ralph Waldo Emerson: "What lies behind us and what lies before us are small matters compared to what lies within us."

Wishing you joy and many blessings,

Rain

Welcoming Sashi into the Family

I have some exciting news to share with you. In early March, I had the opportunity to welcome Sashi into my family. She's about 10 years old and so very sweet. Sashi spends much of her day in my office keeping me company and laying on my feet while I do consultations. She is quiet and gentle and I adore her. Sashi is enjoying a lot of loving attention and we're helping her get healthier. It is a joy to have her as an animal companion!

I'll be writing more about Sashi in upcoming blog posts including: adopting an older animal, caring for long haired cats, and helping an overweight animal companion become fit.

Bruce was an extraordinary human being and a vital part of Camp Unleashed. I just loved him the moment I saw him.
